Greatness Spotlight

George M. Jefferson (08/10/29-10/13/08) was born in Mayesville, SC to the late William McKinley Jefferson and Julia Dix Jefferson.

Believing education is the key to unlocking doors, Mr. Jefferson was a lifelong learner and educator. From the cotton fields of Mayesville, SC to the classrooms of Allendale, SC and to the streets of injustice throughout our Nation, Mr. Jefferson lived a life of Public Service.

After completing his studies at Mayesville Institute High School, Mr. Jefferson matriculated to Allen University, Columbia, South Carolina, obtaining a B.S. in Chemistry. Mr. Jefferson also obtained his Masters of Education degree from South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, South Carolina. Having been prepared, Mr. Jefferson would spend 32 years of his life educating the youth of South Carolina.

Mr. Jefferson was a Charter Member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Allendale Masonic Lodge No.53, and the NAACP. He was a Community Activist, Civil Right Activist and Political Activist. He believed in justice and was always ready to fight for people who were unable to fight for themselves. He stood for what was right even if he had to stand alone.

Depression 101

Recent news stories have raised awareness of depression. The news stories will soon fade. However, depression will continue to manifest. Depression knows no color, gender, age, or socioeconomic status. Thus, it is imperative that we continue to focus on awareness, education, support, and treatment.

Common Signs and Symptoms

1. Feelings of helplessness and hopelessness
2. Loss of interest in daily activities
3. Appetite or weight changes
4. Sleep changes
5. Anger or irritability
6. Loss of energy

Greatness is not a function of circumstance.
Greatness, it turns out, is largely a matter of conscious choice, and discipline.
